YEARBOOK DEDICATION

ROBERT G. RAUCCI
HELEN M. HEGARTY
DANIEL J. KIRKORIAN

Your Dedication To Us Has Meant A Great Deal And We Would Like To Thank You Very Much For Your Hard Work Over The Past Years.

The Class Of 1980

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF '80

Each of you has successfully completed an important phase of your growth and development, both as a student and a person, through your graduation from high school. Because of the unique educational opportunities in vocational agriculture presented to you here at Essex, I am confident that you are prepared to take a successful place in the mainstream of our society.

My sincere good wishes go to all of you and I extend the privileges and responsibilities of alumni of the Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute.

Raymond Potter
Director

TO THE CLASS OF '80

Growing-up in the decade of the seventies, with its Watergate scandal, Vietnam war, gas lines, and concerns about promotions and job placement, has not been easy. You, however, have now culminated that process with the successful completion of your high school education and I heartily congratulate all of you.

The decade ahead promises new and tougher challenges with energy, the economy, and international relations. I am sure, however, that your education here at Essex will provide you with the abilities to meet those challenges.

Lots of luck in your future goals.

Richard M. Brown
Assistant Dean

SOCCER

The soccer team this year was in the process of rebuilding. Faced with the loss of several outstanding Seniors from last year, the team was made up primarily of underclassmen.

Once again the team was full of enthusiasm and team spirit. Coach Zisis, with his European experience in soccer, did a superb job shaping the team.

Tom Blair and John LeBrun, co-captains of the team, contributed greatly to the team's success. Although LeBrun was injured for part of the season, Coach Zisis expects both players to be stars next year.

After this season, the 1980 team has the potential to be a winning one.

Kneeling L to R: S. Roger, T. Martinson, M. Smigielski, G. Hall, B. Hojaboom, E. Noll, J. Lussier, R. Levesque, Standing: Coach Zisis, D. Mills, G. Pelletier, E. Horne, J. LeBrun, M. Martinson, T. Blair, K. Sanford, D. Wheeler, M. Nelson, S. Hojaboom

X-COUNTRY

The X-Country team's dedication and desire to win solidified the team into a hard-working organization. Under the expertise of Coach Mark Gatti and his integral part in developing the team's spirit, each runner worked to his best ability throughout the season.

The girl's team was led by Kay Capozzi, an outstanding runner, and was strongly backed by Lori Thornton and Karen Levesque. Dan Verrington was the pathfinder for the boy's team and was an inspiration to them all.

Next year's team faces the loss of the following Seniors: Bob Moore, Scott Griffin, Scott Bryer, Warren Whitmore, Kay Capozzi, and Lori Thornton.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

The 1979-80 basketball season was filled with both change and growth. The coaching aspect changed considerably when Mr. Raucci became coach of the junior varsity and Mr. Kirkorian became the varsity coach. Each is pleased with his new position and they both agree that it should strengthen the teams in the years to come.

Co-captains of the varsity, Kevin Moriarty and Dean Germinara, led the team with their spark, energy, and concern for the team. Two juniors, J. LeBrun and T. Blair, played extremely well this year and both should be prominent on next year's team.

Next year's team faces the loss of the following Seniors: K. Moriarty, D. Germinara, S. Griffin, and S. Bryer.

Kneeling L to R: D. Verrington, D. Germinara, K. Moriarty, S. Griffin, Standing: Coach Kirkorian, J. LeBrun, T. Blair, S. Bryer, M. Nelson.

JUNIOR VARSITY

WOMEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

Women's basketball is a fairly new sport at the Aggie, but this season it expanded to form a junior varsity team under the direction of Coach Cheryl Johnson. Along with the expansion came a longer, tighter season and entry into the River Valley League.

Through the dedicated coaching of Mark Gatti, the girl's varsity team thrived on pure enthusiasm. Captains Lisa Rygielski and Lori Thornton played outstanding basketball and contributed greatly to the team's strength.

Next year's team faces the loss of the following Seniors: Dawn Haight, Lori Thornton, and Lisa Rygielski.

SENIOR PROM

On the evening of April 3rd, the Senior Prom was held at The Ship in Lynnfield. Amid the splendor of this setting, Seniors and their guests dined on a fine meal, shared memories with their classmates, and danced the night away to the music of The Heist.

The tradition of choosing a Prom Queen was revived this year. By a vote of the faculty wives, Ruth Smith was chosen as the Queen and Lori Thornton and Donna Leavitt as the Court.

A special thanks for this lovely affair and for all the Senior activities must be given to the two class advisors, Bob Raucci and Dan Kirkorian. Because of their dedication and guidance, this year and especially this evening will be a cherished memory of the Class of 1980.

GRADUATION 1980

High spirit and enthusiasm were in the air on the evening of April 9th as the Class of '80 prepared for their graduation ceremony. Dressed in their traditional green and white caps and gowns, the Seniors were led into the gym by the Senior Class President, Kay Capozzi.

A highlight of the ceremony was the address by the guest speaker, Mr. Shelley Friedman of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. He spoke of the high rewards that can be achieved by graduates of vocational education. The student speaker, James O'Shea, also addressed the group.

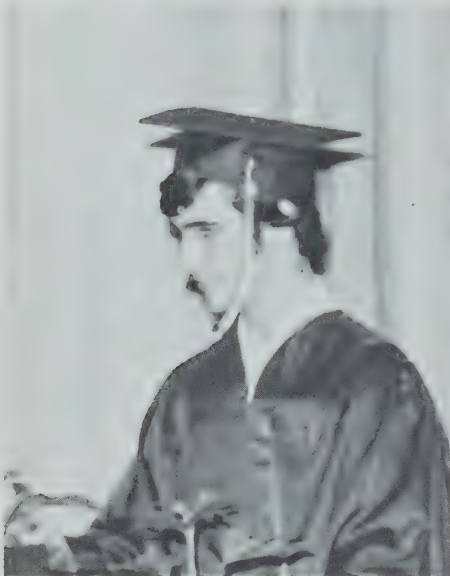

After the speeches, the Director, Mr. Raymond Potter announced the many awards and scholarships. The finale of the evening was the awarding of the diplomas by members of the Board of Trustees.
